Containing the freſheſt Advices, Foreign and Domeſtick.

From Thurſday May 22, to Thurſday May 29, 1746.

To the Author of the Weſtminſter Journal, March 8.

SIR,

I Am an ancient Perſon, as you will gueſs by the Particulars I am going to write: My Caſe, therefore, is the more worthy of Notice.

About fifty Years ago I was divorced from a very bad Husband, who, on that Occaſion, partly through Fear, and partly through Shame, thought proper to go abroad. Since that I have been four Times married, in general with pretty good Luck, my preſent Spouſe having made me happy for now almoſt nineteen Years. A very good Sort of a Man he is indeed; and I being ſomething of the Temper of Joan in the Song, would not change him for any extravagant wicked young Fellow in Europe.

My divorced Husband has been dead more than forty five Years. While he lived, he gave me ſome Trouble at Law; but I always caſt him, and did not doubt of being eaſy when he was laid in his ſilent Grave.——Yet ſo it hath happen'd, that though no Divorce could be more legal than ours, I have been ever ſince plagued, at Times, by thoſe who pretend to be his Heirs and Succeſſors.—— I had firſt to deal with the Man who calls himſelf his Son, and now, would you think it, with the Grandſon.

How theſe Youngſters could dream of any Agreement between them and me, I cannot imagine: but they both pretend to the old Man's original Right in my Perſon and Property, and have more than once attempted to commit a Rape upon the old Woman.

The Grandſon, an active, deſperate young Raſcal, has lately attacked me with more Violence than ever, and by what I hear, ſwears he will lie in Wait, if it be this Year, to get me by Surprize into his Power.———My preſent Husband has Servants enough to guard me, and loves me enough, I dare ſay, to do it. But the old Gentleman is ſo ſtrangely ſecure in this Reſpect, that if I am not always crying out for Help, he thinks me ſafe enough, and ſends all his People about ſome other Employment than taking Care of Me.

Towards the End of laſt Summer my Husband was gone Himſelf, with all the ſtout young Fellows about the Houſe, to aſſiſt ſome Neighbours in a Quarrel that did not much concern Us. There was no body left with me but an old Oſtler, now kept as a Watchman, and two or three old Women Penſioners, whom I maintain for the good Services they have done. Juſt at this Time comes the young Raviſher before-mentioned, with three or four more deſperate Ruffians, reſolved to accompliſh his wicked Deſign. They broke into the Houſe and he had got me about the Middle, uttering the moſt bitter Imprecations that he would never let me go again. However, as Providence would have it, by my own Struggles, and the little Aſſiſtance that was at Hand, I kept him in play till Notice was ſent, and my Spouſe came Home with his own Men, and ſeveral of our Neighbour's Servants beſides.

Here was, you'll ſay, Help enough on the preſent Occaſion; and the Effect was, that the Invaders ran away, and hid themſelves in a Wood at ſome Diſtance: But while they remain there as they do at this Time, ought not the Houſe to be well guarded? Surely it ought. Yet no ſooner were the Villains out of Sight, but my good Husband relapſed into his Home Security, and Care for the Buſineſs of his Neighbour. He had certainly not only ſent back all the borrowed Servants, but ſent his own again, if a new Alarm from the Wood had not prevented. In a Word, Mr. TOUCHIT, I ſeem at preſent to have no Safety but in the Nearneſs of my Danger, which is a very odd and precarious Situation.

If you publiſh this Caſe, poſſibly it may do me ſome Service. If it does not, your Kindneſs will be well intended to

BR——NIA,

From the London Gazette, Feb. 25.

St. James's, Feb. 25. The following is an Addreſs of the annual Committee of the Convention of the Royal Burrows, in that Part of his Majeſty's Dominions called Scotland, having been tranſmitted to his Grace the Duke of Argyll, has by him been preſented to his Majeſty: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE the annual Committee of the Convention of the Royal Burrows of that Part of your Majeſty's Dominions called Scotland, in Behalf of ourſelves and Conſtituents, upon the firſt Occaſion of our Meeting, beg Leave to approach your ſacred Perſon, deeply ſenſible of the Madneſs of our Countrymen, by whom a wicked and unnatural Rebellion has been chiefly fomented and carried on againſt the beſt of Sovereigns, under whom we have the full and ſecure Enjoyment of our Religion, Liberties, and Laws.

We are altogether unable to expreſs our Thankfulneſs to your Majeſty, for ſending down among us His Royal Highneſs the Duke of Cumberland, and with the moſt unfeigned Zeal, congratulate the Succeſs of your Majeſty's Arms, under his Command, over the Pretender's Son and his deteſtable Followers.

Your Majeſty's faithful State of Burrows has been more expoſed to the Rage and Malice of theſe Rebels, than any other of your Subjects; ſome of us are deprived of Magiſtracy; many of us have been oppreſſed and plundered; all of us almoſt totally interrupted in proſecuting our Buſineſs and Commerce; we have been ſubject to lawleſs arbitrary Power, and treated like conquer'd Slaves.

We confide in your Majeſty's Goodneſs to give ſuch Relief in our preſent low diſtreſſed Condition, as your Royal Wiſdom ſhall judge proper; and with the greateſt Sincerity, we beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that we will, with our Lives and Fortunes, Maintain and Defend your Majeſty's Perſon, Government and Family, againſt all Traitors and Enemies whatever, on which the Continuance of every Thing dear and valuable to us, under God, depends.

Our earneſt and ardent Prayers and Wiſhes are, and ſhall be, That your Majeſty's Endeavours to reſtore the Peace and Liberty of Europe may be ſoon crown'd with Succeſs; that your Subjects may be ſenſible of the Bleſſings they enjoy under your auſpicious Government; that after a long and proſperous Reign, your Royal Progeny may, with your Majesty's Vertues, inherit your Crown to the End of Time.

EDINBURGH, March 7.

The Court of Session is by Act of Parliament, adjourned to the first of June next.

We hear that the Army under his Royal Highness the Duke, was to march from Aberdeen as on Tuesday last, and that the Duke of Kingston's Light Horse were to be detached to join the Hessians.

The Rebels are reported to be very Numerous, having rais'd the Countries as they went along by Fire and Sword, it is said they have now about 6000 Men at Invernes, and 2000 others in detached Parties. —— They talk likewise of their having blockaded Fort Augustus. —— But these Reports are not entirely to be credited.

Wednesday his serene Highness the Prince of Hesse left the Palace of Holy-rood House, and marched Westward in grand Procession. 1. His Highness's Coaches. 2. The Prince of Hessenberg. 3. The led Horses. 4 His Serene Highness himself properly attended. 5. The Col. of the Hussars with his Corps and their Sabres drawn. 6. Coaches. 7. The Right Hon. the Earl of Crawford, attended, and with three Hussars and naked Sabres. 8. The covered Waggons. 9. The Col. of his Highness's Guards in a Chaise. 10. The Baggage.

His Serene Highness was to stop at the House of the Right Hon. the Earl of Hopton. —— The several Divisions of the Hessians are successively moving Westward.

March 11. His Royal Highness the Duke has been so careful of the Property and Effects, even of such as are actually in the Rebellion, in the Shire of Aberdeen, that he makes it Death to deprive them of the meanest Trifle.

The Duke of Athole has rais'd near 500 able bodied Men for the Service of the Government.

The Rebels have hang'd a very innocent good natur'd Man, for no other Crime than carrying a Letter to some Friends of the Government.—A Piece of Cruelty without a Precedent. —— 'Tis said a Party of them have moved Westward from Inverness.

The University of St. Andrews, have elected the Duke of Cumberland to be their Chancellor, and presented him with the Minutes of his Election in a Gold Box.

Four Men of War are arrived in the Firth of Clyde, to guard the Western Coast.

Alexander Hamilton of Innerwick Esq; is appointed Postmaster General for Scotland, in the Room of Sir John Inglis Bart.

The Prices of Grain rise apace; best Wheat at Haddington being 20 s. Barley 15 s. Oats 13 s. and Pease 12 s. 6 d.

Aberdeen, March 1. Yesterday about Noon his Royal Highness the Duke arrived here with the Army under his Command. He was met on the Road by the late Magistrates, and entered the Town amidst the Acclamations of vast Crouds of loyal Subjects, who lined the Streets as he passed on Horse-back, to his Lodgings. The Masters of both Universities, standing before the College, welcomed their Deliverer, and the Friends of Liberty expressed their Joy by Bonfires, Illuminations, &c, in the Evening. This Day the late Magistrates and principal Burghers waited on his Royal Highness, were graciously received, and had the Honour to kiss his Hand. The Professors of the two Colleges were admitted to the same Honour: And after them the Clergy of the Synod, who had met on this joyful Occasion, to the Number of about 60. All were graciously received. The same Day came here the Earl of Kintore, Lord Strichen, Earl of Aberdeen, and great Numbers of Gentlemen from the Country.

P S. March 1. This Day the Earl of Findlater, Lord Forbes, and the Laird of Grant, with very numerous Retinues came likewise to this Place.

LONDON, March 1.

Last Night all the Transports with the Horse on board arrived in the River from Williamstadt.

By the Holland Mail arrived this Day, we hear from Dunkirk of the 2d Instant, that that Night sail'd agein several Transports with Troops on board for Scotland. The Troops cantoned in that Neighbourhood, are filing off towards Ghent.

The Stocks are risen to two per Cent.

The City of Amsterdam have, 'tis said, peremptorily demanded a Stadtholder.

March 13. By Advice just received from the Master of a Dutch Ship, who came from Dunkirk, we learn, that there is now in that Road six large Transports, two Privateers, and the Hazard Sloop, all full of Soldiers for Scotland; that the Men had been on board three Weeks, and had twice attempted to put to Sea, but were drove back again by stress of Weather: And that there is in the Harbour six more large Transports, with their Sails bent ready to put to Sea, but no Soldiers on board; and four Privateers, forty Fishing-Boats, thirty English Prizes, and 106 Dutch Vessels, great and small.

Extract of a Letter from Capt. James Dobbins, of the Plain-Dealer, bound from London to Maryland (with the Men and Women Convicts from Newgate) dated Port-Louis, March 7, 1745.

'I was taken the 21st past in Latitude 38. 45. by the Zephyre, a French Man of War of 30 Carriage Guns and 350 Men after an Engagement of two Hours and a Half, in which sorry of the Convicts on Board behav'd well, and fought with great Courage; but being overpower'd by Numbers, was oblig'd to surrender, after killing them five Men, and wounding 16. We have one dead of his Wounds, and another I fear will not recover. The Man of War took me, most of my Men, and some of the Convicts on board them, and sent the Ship, with about 35 of the Men Convicts, and all the Women, for any Port in France; but unfortunately for those left on Board my Ship, she was lost near Brest, and all perish'd, except 7 Frenchmen, who had the good Fortune to get on Shore.'

Extract of a Letter from Bristol, March 24.

'The Garland and London Privateers have taken a Ship of 20 Guns, bound from France to Guiney, which the London has carried to Lisbon; and also a Ship of 36 Guns, with 150 Men, who fought the Garland two Hours before the London came up, they afterwards took her, and order'd her for England. She is call'd the La Victoire, Capt. Plaseliere, from Cape Francois for Port-Louis,

'Louis, and had on board 110 Chests of Silver, and a 'great Quantity of Valuables.'

NEW-YORK, May 5.

We hear, there are five Men of War and thirteen Privateers cruizing near Cape Francois, waiting for a large Fleet that is daily expected there from France.

We hear further, that a Sloop belonging to New-England, was taken going into Jamaica, which the Capt. ranlom'd, and left his Mate as an Hoſtage: Soon after the ſaid Sloop with proper Credentials as a Flag of Truce, ſail'd from Jamaica in order to redeem the Mate; but was met by a Spaniſh Privateer, who took her and ſent her into Havanna. A few Days after this, the Privateer fell in with his Majeſty's Snow Drake, Capt. Clarke, under Port Morant Key's, whereupon a very hot Engagement enſued; the Spaniards being much ſuperiour in Number, and the Drake having the Misfortune of her Arm Cheſt on the Quarter Deck blowing up, the Enemy entered her and had Poſſeſſion of her a Quarter of an Hour; but the Captain and Officers, with a few Marines, made a bold Sally, and retook her, and ſhortly after took the Privateer, which they brought with them into Jamaica. Many Men are killed on both Sides; the Captain of Marines is dangerouſly wounded; the Lieutenant of the Privateer died of his Wounds in Jamaica, and the Captain has both his Legs cut off. It was thought that this was the ſmarteſt Engagement of any that has been at Sea this War, and that the Captain of the Drake, tho' a little Man, behaved like a bold Engliſhman.

WILLIAMSBURG, May 29.

On Sunday laſt arrived in Rappahannock River, Capt. Ward, from Liverpool, Capt. Cauſier, from Ireland, with Convicts; Capt. Bayley, from Glaſgow, and Capt. Dixon, from Whitehaven. The Ships from Liverpool, Ireland, and Glaſgow, had no late public Papers, nor could the Maſters tell any News; but Capt. Dixon reports, That he had read in the London Gazette, at Whitehaven, the following Article from Italy, dated the 26th of March laſt;

"The King of Sardinia, having been joined by the "Auſtrian Troops, had taken Aſti and Alexandria, "with about 7000 French and Spaniards Priſoners, and "was purſuing them."

Arriv'd at Hampton, the Snow Happy, Copeland, from Whitehaven; the Tryall, Steel, from Glaſgow; and ſome Seamen belonging to the Ship Jenny, Capt. Bogle, from Glaſgow; who give an Account of the ſaid Ship's being taken on her Paſſage to Virginia, by a Spaniſh Regiſter Ship. The John, Capt. Bland, mention'd in our laſt, is certainly taken: As is alſo the——Capt. Higgins, from Rappahanock.

Laſt Thurſday died the Lady of the Hon. Lewis Burwell, Eſq; of Gloceſter County, in the 28th Year of her Age, after a tedious Illneſs, under which ſhe ſupported herſelf with great Firmneſs of Mind: She is juſtly eſteemed by all that knew her, a bright Example of Virtue and Prudence; whoſe Ornaments were thoſe of a meek and quiet Spirit; ſhe approv'd herſelf a true Patroneſs to the Orphans and Widows in her Neighbourhood, and is very ſincerely lamented by all her Acquaintance.

Mr. Parks,

When you want better Matter to fill up your Gazette, pleaſe to publiſh this Piece. I am, Sir,

Your humble Servant.

E. C.

I Edwin Conway, of the County of Lancaſter, having been informed, that it hath been reported in Northumberland County, that I ſaid there were fewer Tithables below Mill-Creek, in the ſaid County of Northumberland, than there truly was, by the laſt Liſt; for Anſwer I ſay, that I never told any one there were fewer than three Hundred and Sixty four, as appear'd by the Liſts Capt. Steptoe ſent me. I never heard of the Petition till the Day before it was offered to the Court to be certified to the Aſſembly; I did not eſteem it ſuch a Favour to Lancaſter, as to be worth the Asking; nor ſuch a Prejudice to Northumberland, as to deſerve a Denial; for it could make no Alteration in any Expence, but the County Levy only, which is now three Pounds and an Half of Tobacco per Poll; and as there is neither Ferry nor Bridge ſupported at the County Charge, 'tis not likely the County Levy will often be more. The County Debt laſt was about 7759, now paid by 2217 Tithables, at 3 and a Half per Poll; take 364 from 2217, there will remain 1853. So that the Levy would not have been three Quarters of a Pound more per Poll, if the 364 Tithables had been added to Lancaſter before, and the Advantage to Lancaſter would have been a very inconſiderable Trifle, and of no Weight with me; but of my own Knowledge, it muſt have been a Convenience to the Petitioners, to be taken into Lancaſter; and therefore I was for granting their Requeſt, and for no other Reaſon. My Religion requires me to do what Good I can, and I am ſure it could not be ſo great an Evil to any, as Good to the Petitioners: And it appears plain to me, Northumberland Court Houſe would not have been fixed higher up the County, than now it is, tho' the Inhabitants below Mill Creek had never been of that County: Therefore they have Reaſon to complain, being wholy diſregarded.

I don't reckon any Thing more ſcandalous to a Man, than to be a Liar; for nothing ſets him more oppoſite to God, nor makes him more agreeable to the Devil. I thank God I regard Truth, and therefore give myſelf this Trouble, not for Fear of malignant Tongues, but for a Caution to ſuch to adhere to the Truth, which is the Deſire of
